

BluTide launches 4 new ranges in the 2nd half of 2018

BluTide is launching 4 new stunning ranges in the second half of 2018. Once again they promise to shock the market with innovation and style. The ranges are designed by South Africans for South African use. Like the rest of the BluTide ranges, BluTide has used the highest grades of DZR brass and other materials in order for the product to pass SABS tests for Jaswic approval as well as apply the prestigious Australian Watermark. It is impressive to note that ALL products within previously launched ranges have been tested and approved. This is not the norm with many of the
